

Silly Old Goat

This Booklet is based on the song
"Silly Old Goat" by Marie Kerwin, from the DVD "Something To Sign About" ©Bilby Publishing & Consulting P/L. All rights reserved

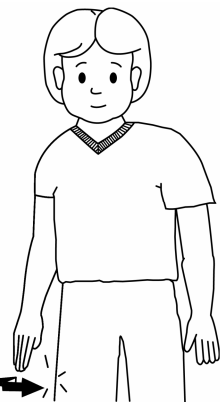

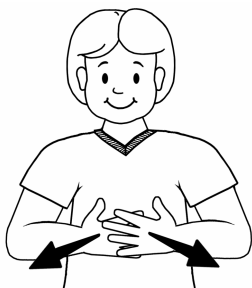

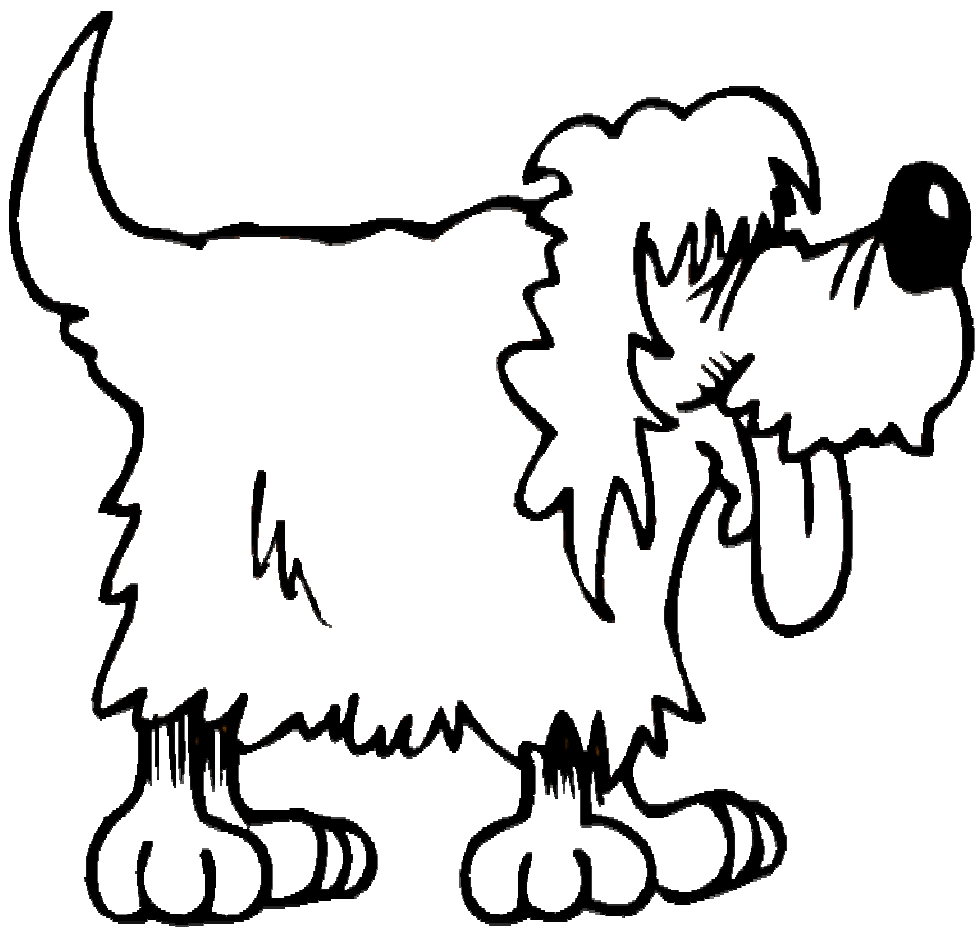

There was a fat cat.

A thin rat.

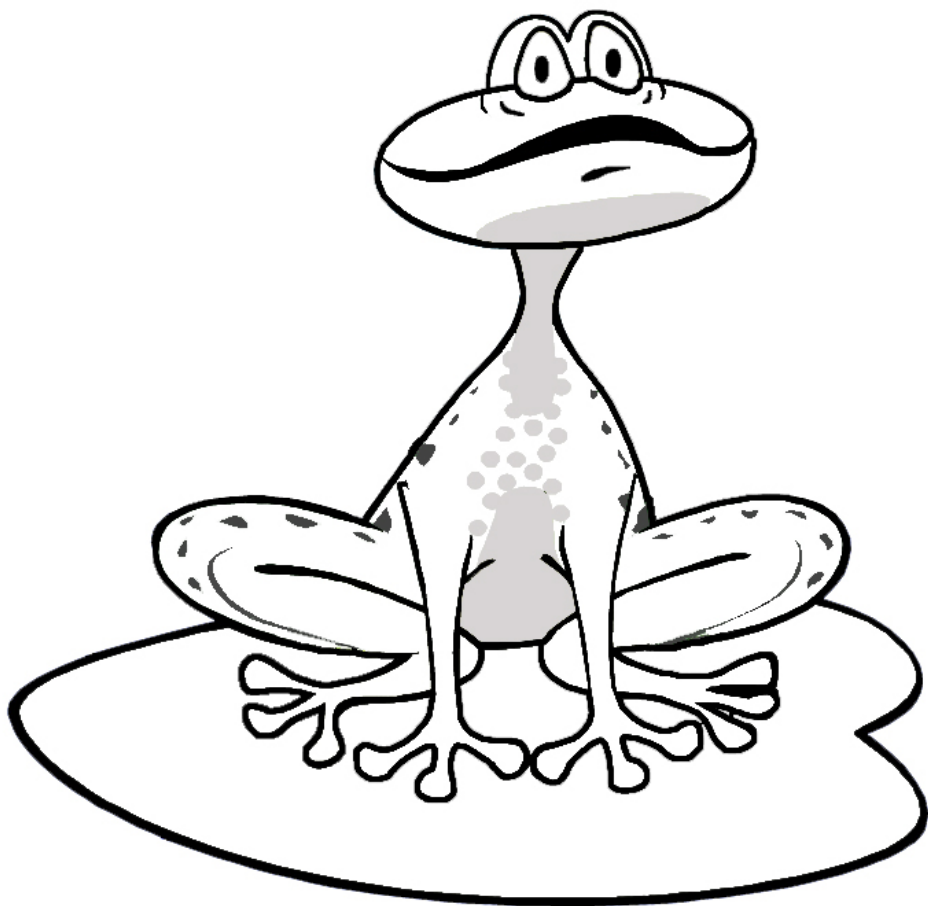

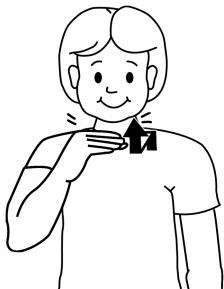

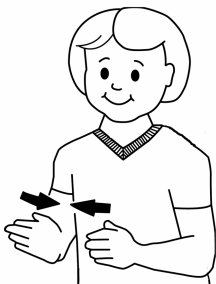

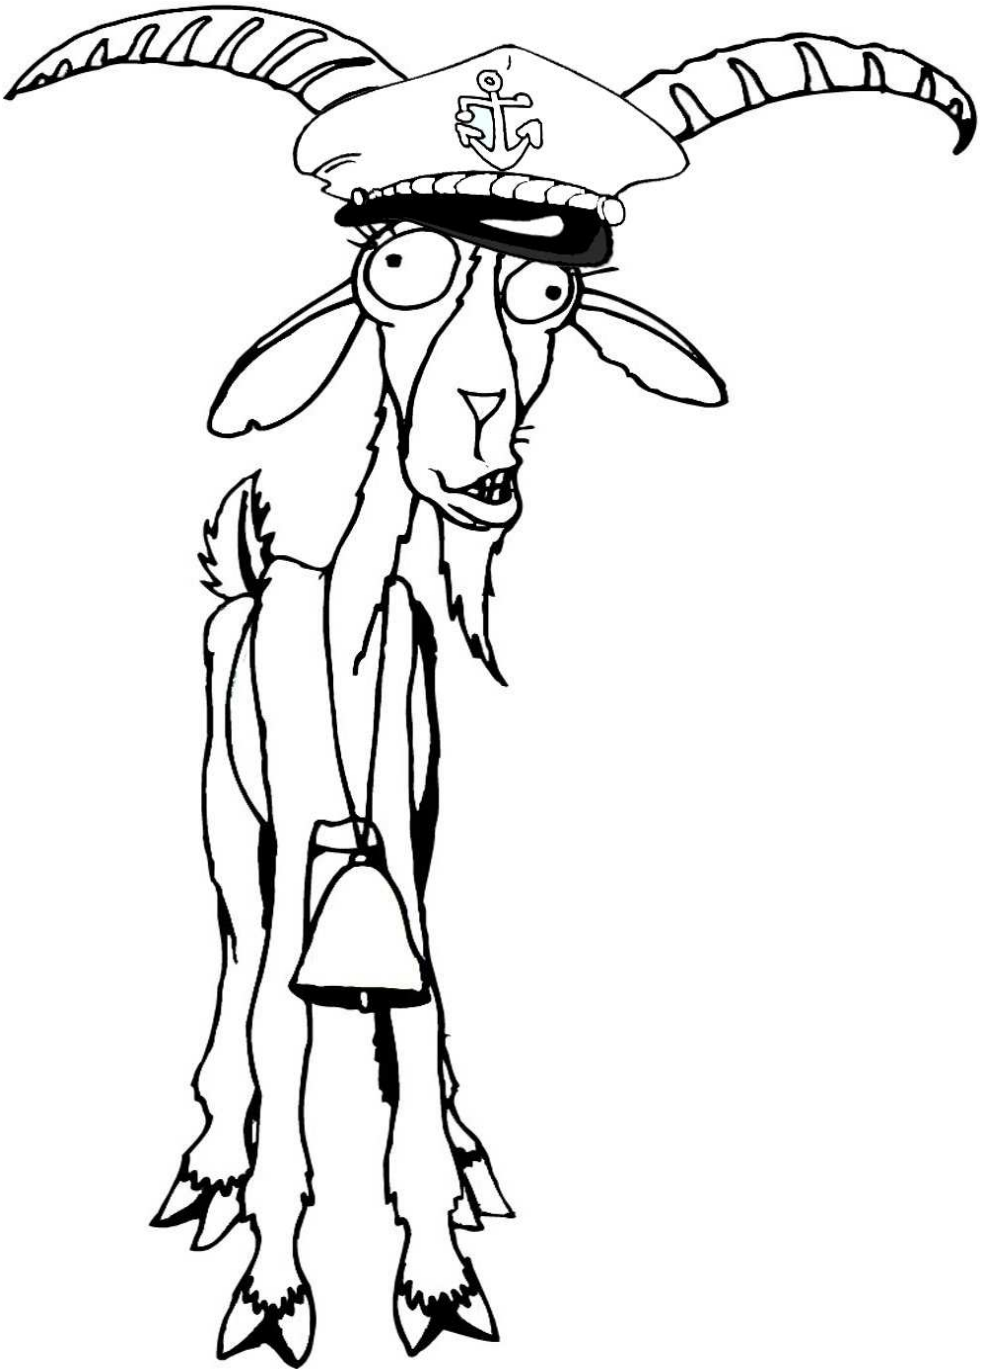

A big dog,

and a small Frog.

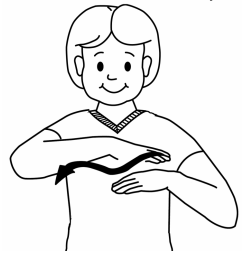

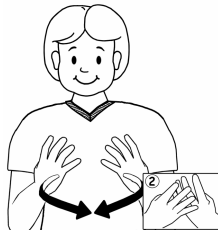

And a silly old goat

Who was adamant they

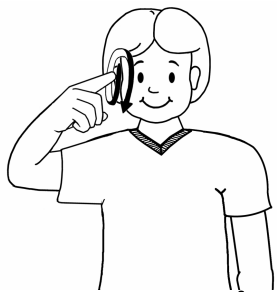

could float over the waves

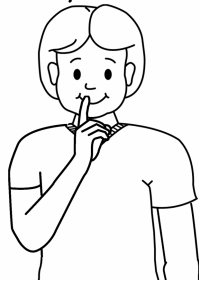

and out to sea in the sailing boat.

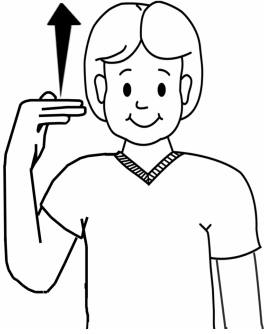

Over the waves and out to sea in the sailing boat.

There was a noisy bear.

A quiet hare.

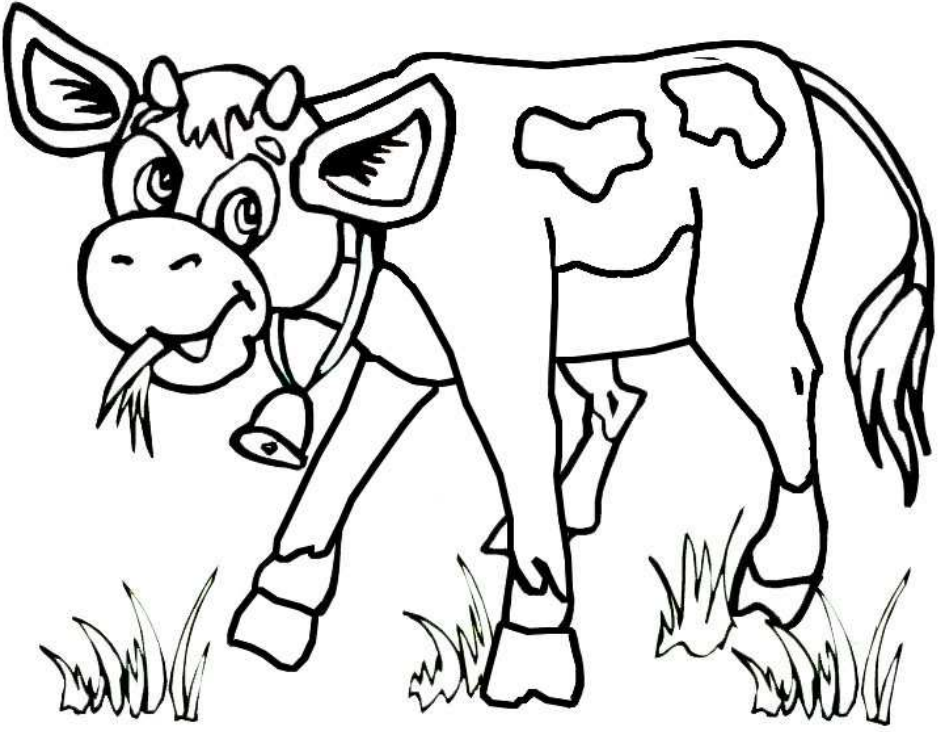

A tall

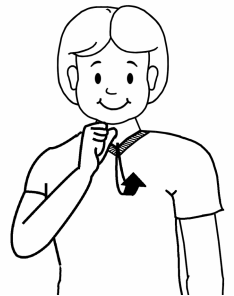

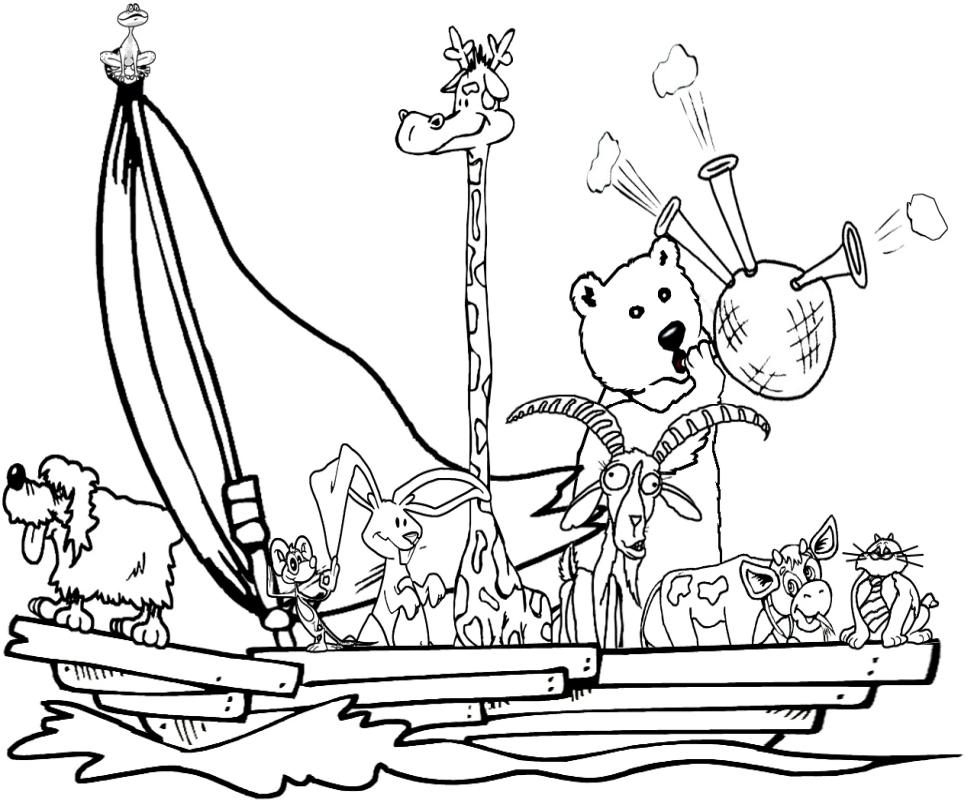

Giraffe,

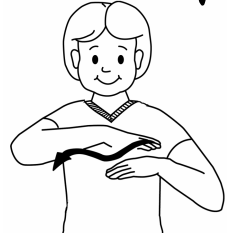

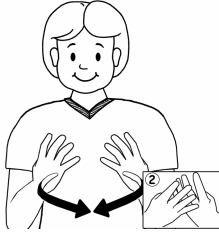

and a short calf.

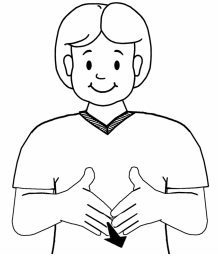

And a silly old goat

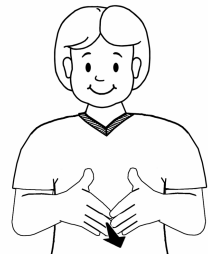

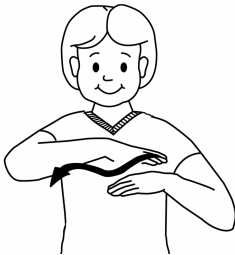

Who was adamant they

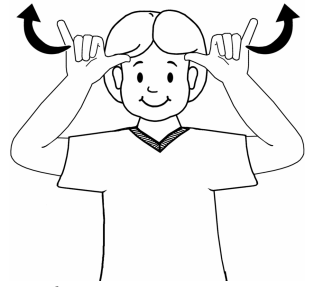

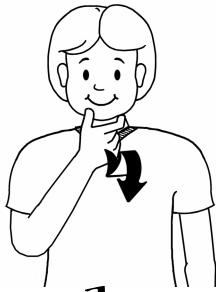

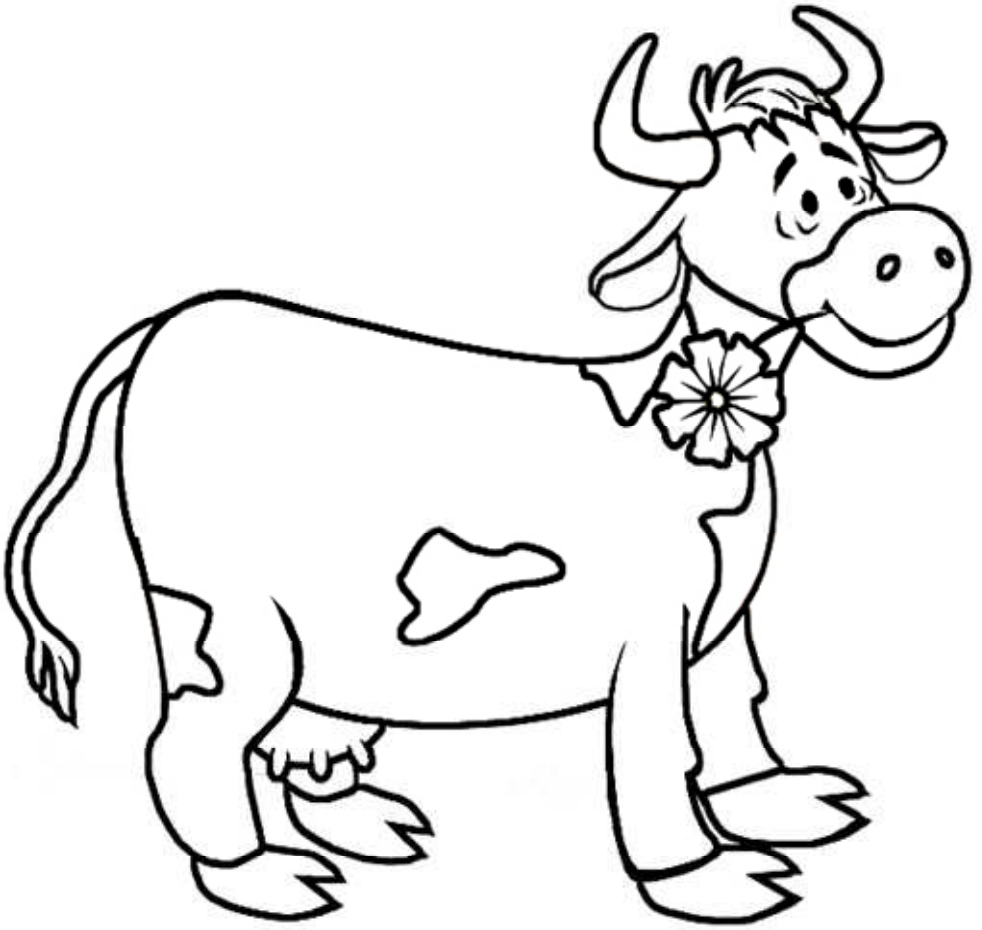

could float over the waves

and out to sea in a sailing boat

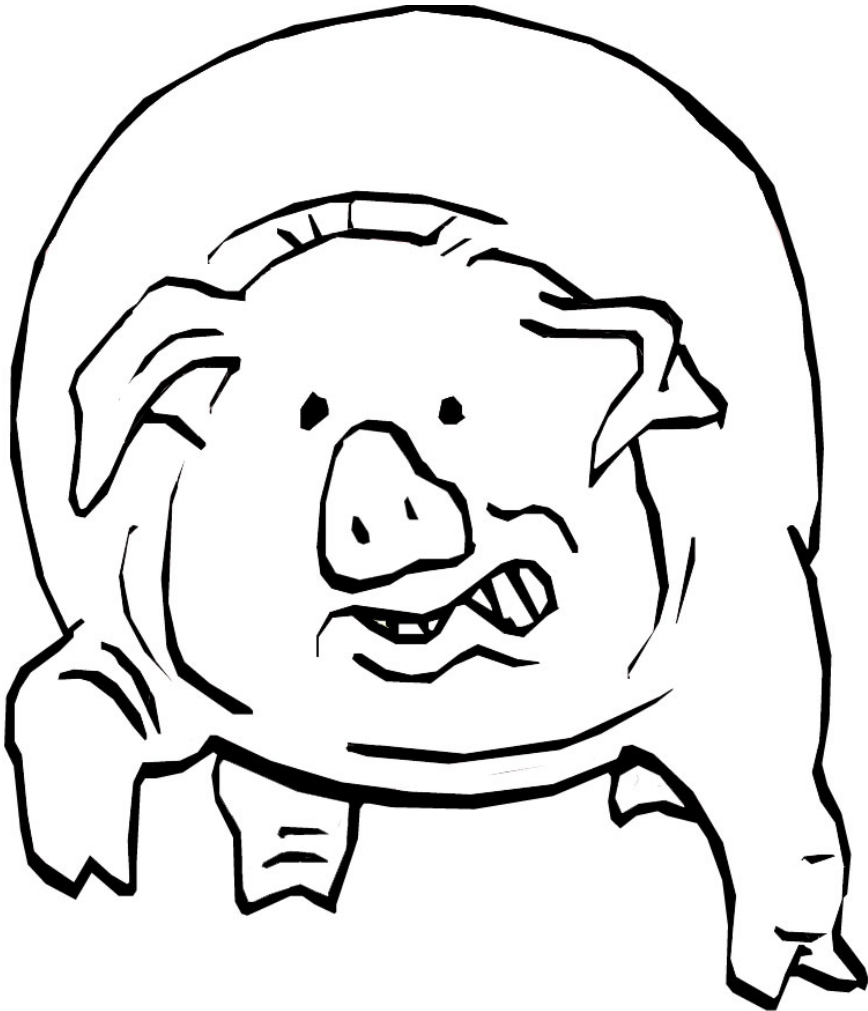

over the waves and out to sea in the sailing boat

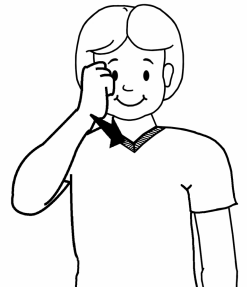

There was a cheerful cow.

A grumpy sow.

A black

Moose,

and a

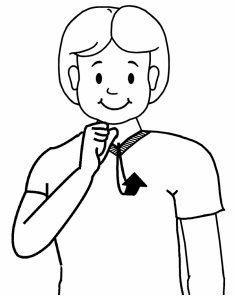

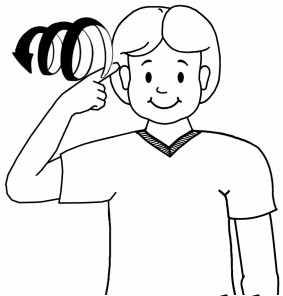

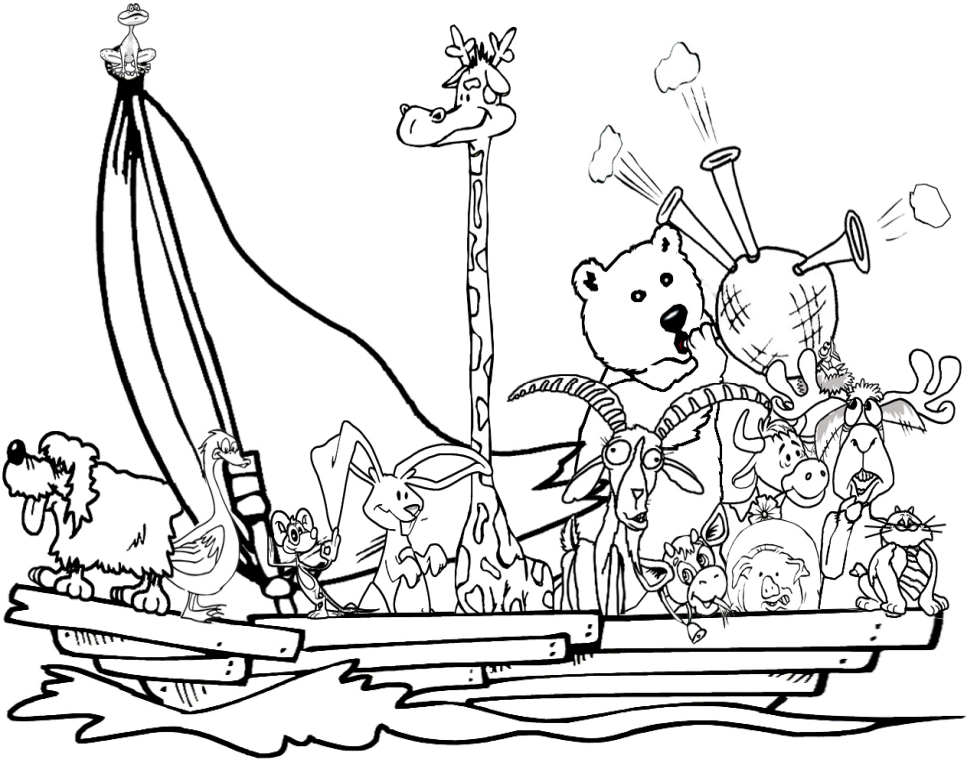

White

Goose.

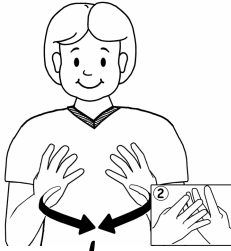

And a silly old goat

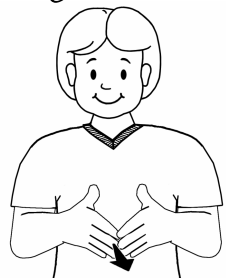

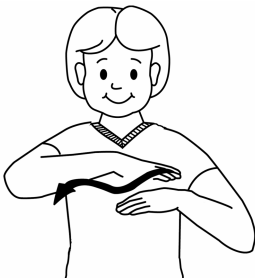

Who was adamant they

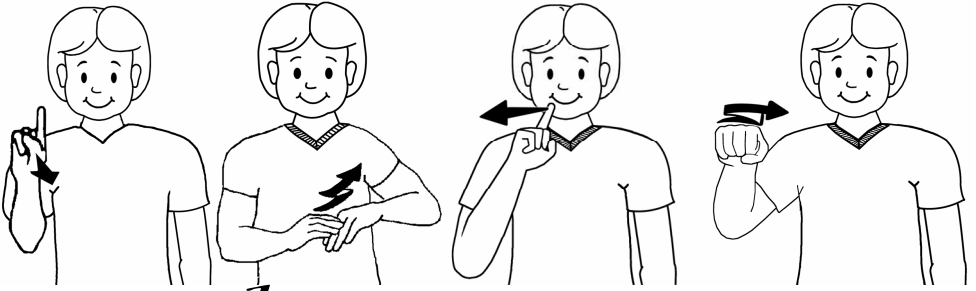

*could float over the waves
And out to sea*

In a sailing boat

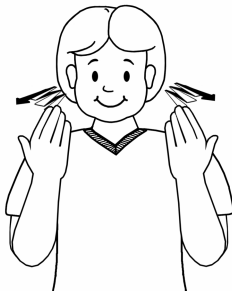

Over the waves and out to sea in the sailing boat

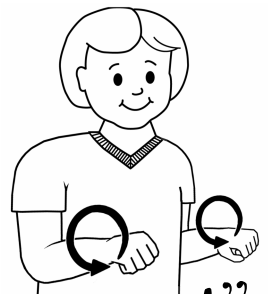

But the cat said "No,

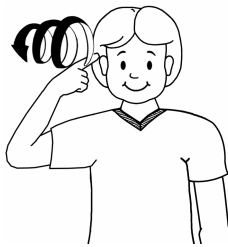

He must not go!

If the wind should stop

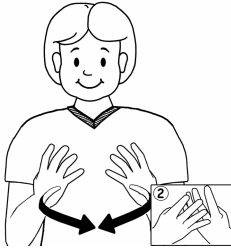

then we'll have to row!"

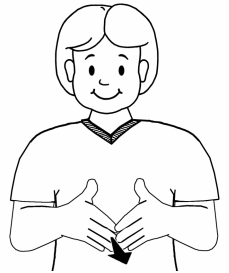

But the silly old goat

was adamant they *could float over the waves

And out to sea*

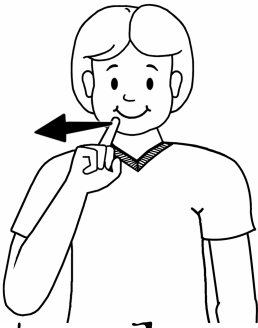

In a sailing boat

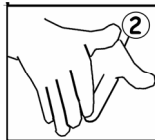

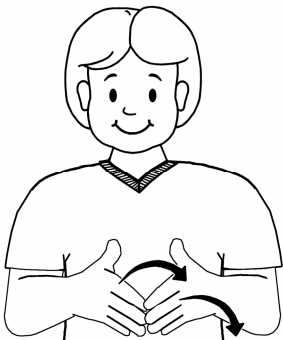

over the waves and out to sea in the sailing boat

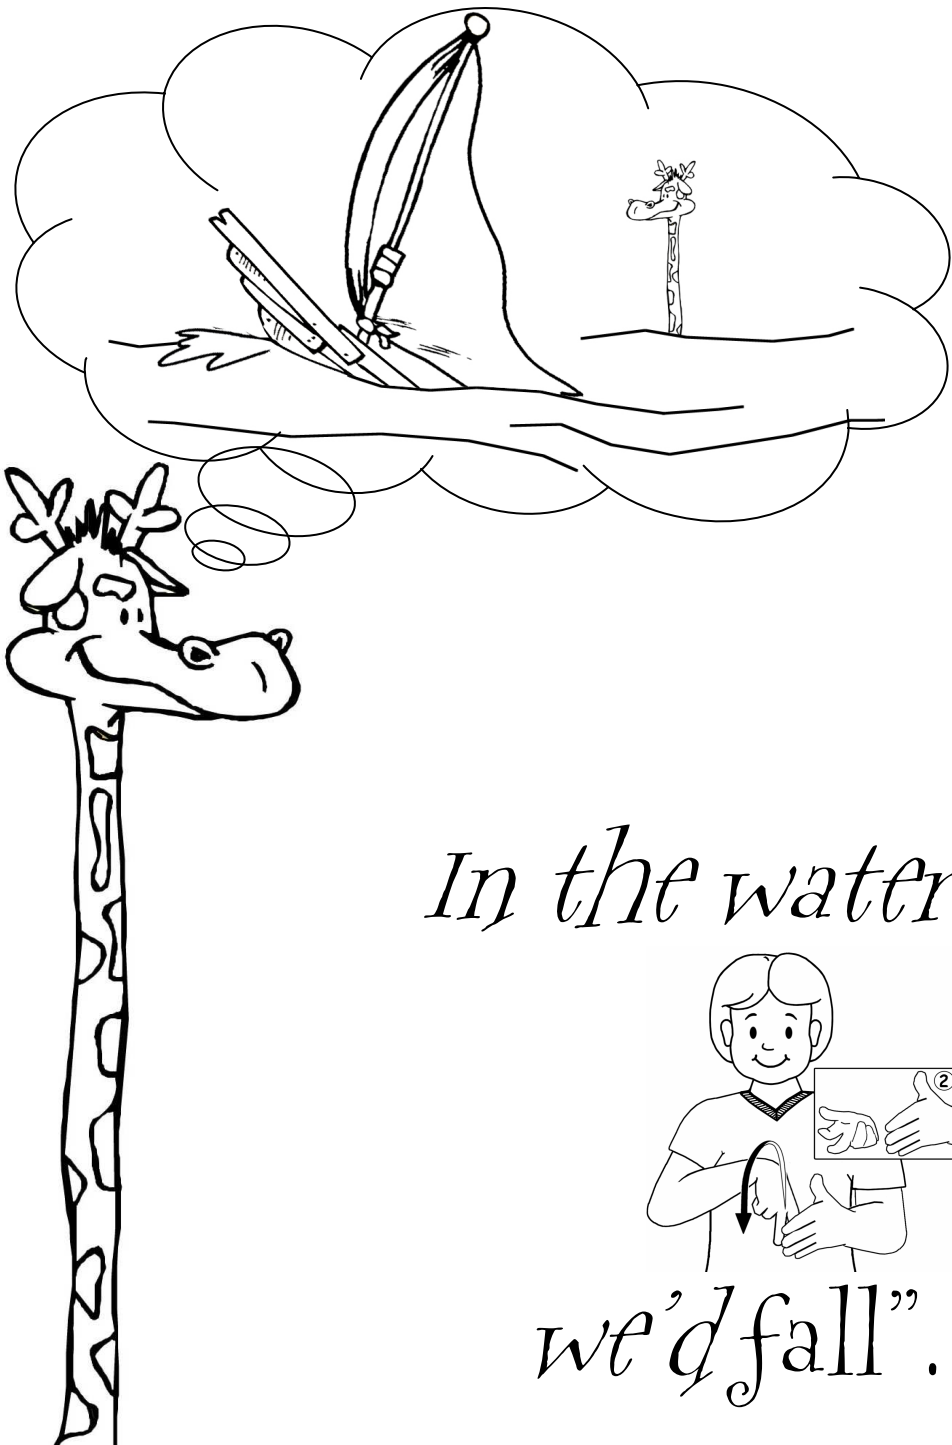

“And the boat’s too small”

Said giraffe so tall.

“If the boat should tip

In the water

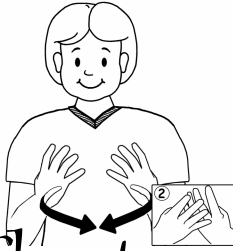

we'd fall".

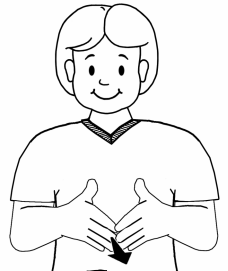

But the silly old goat

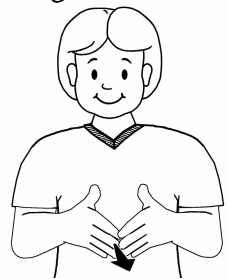

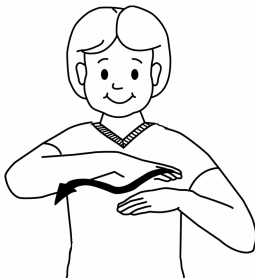

Who was adamant they

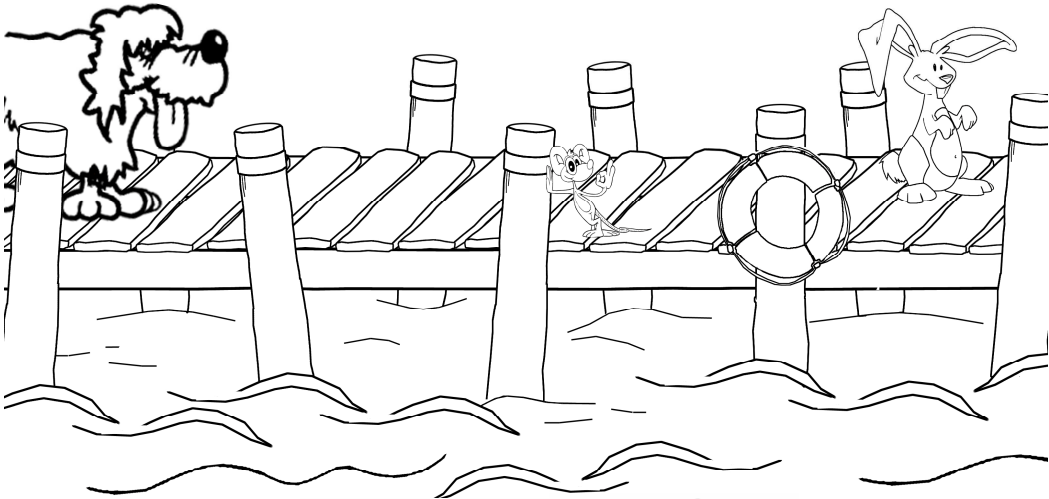

*could float over the waves
And out to sea*

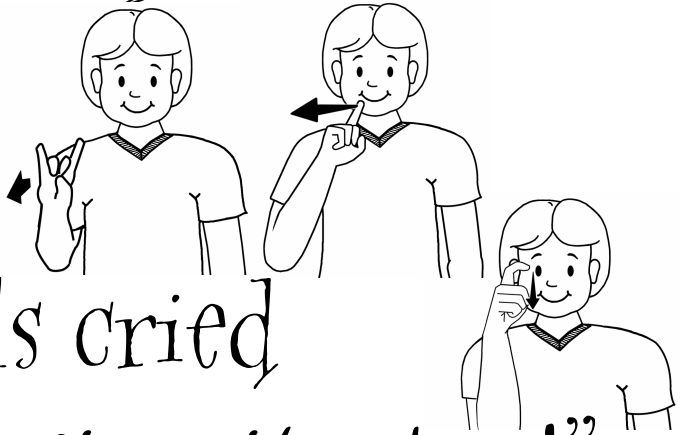

In a sailing boat

Over the waves and out to sea in the sailing boat

So the animals cried

“Let’s give it a try!”

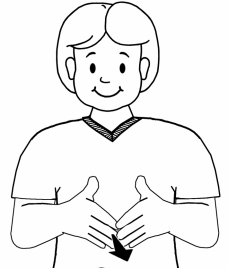

With the silly old goat

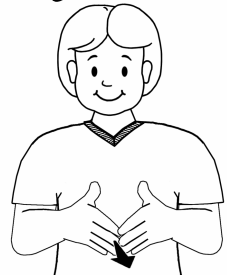

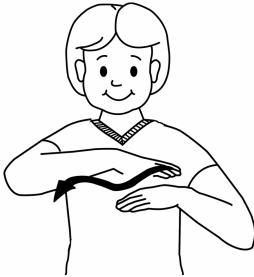

Who was adamant they

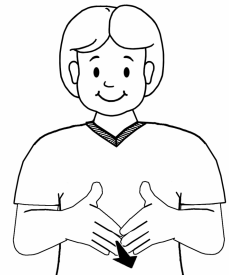

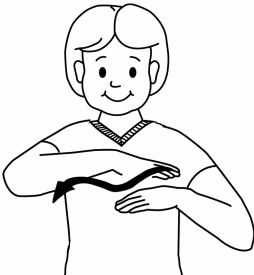

*could float over the waves
And out to sea*

In a sailing boat

Over the waves and out to sea in the sailing boat

Over the waves and out to sea in the sailing boat

